A native of Lake Charles, Louisiana, Ashley brings a strong academic foundation and a client-focused approach to the practice of law. After earning a bachelor's degree in both Philosophy and Psychology from Louisiana State University in 2019, Ashley went on to earn her Juris Doctor from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law in 2023. Since beginning her legal career, Ashley has concentrated primarily on defending commercial entities in a wide range of personal injury matters, including premises liability and transportation-related claims. She also has experience advising clients on complex employment and labor law issues, representing both plaintiffs and defendants in matters involving wrongful termination, wage disputes, and workplace discrimination.

Ashley is admitted to practice in all Louisiana state and federal courts, as well as the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. With a commitment to strategic advocacy and practical solutions, she is dedicated to protecting her clients' interests both inside and outside the courtroom.
